

THE O LIST

A few things I think are just great. —OPRAH

Talk about great inventions! For years I've been cutting off my pantyhose. Now Givenchy's short hosiery ($12) means I don't have to. I can have support, no panty lines and show my toes.

These hand-painted Scott Potter dessert plates ($125 each) were given to me as a gift, and I like them so much I want to share them. They're gorgeous, and because each one is different, you can collect a few to make a bouquet.

After work I always throw on comfy stuff to relax in—what I call my after-school clothes. This Donna Karan Intimates nightshirt ($150) is so comfortable, you want to lounge in it, sleep in it, shop in it—never take it off.

The blend of oranges and cucumbers in this l.a. vie l'orange body lotion ($25) is so refreshing, it's the next best thing to a spa visit. ▶
